Pick of the Week

Beatrice & Virgil

Yann Martel (cl) $29.95

Consider the author who conceives of writing a book on the weighty subject of the Holocaust. Unlike previous works on this darkest of subjects; he chooses to construct a flip book that contains a fiction narrative in one-half & non-fiction analysis in the other. After labouring for many years over this uniquely conceived human abstraction that attempts to bear witness & comprehend the incomprehensible, his work is deemed unworthy of publication. How the author comes to know the story of Beatrice & Virgil that eventually captures the essence of his original project is an allegorical masterpiece that mixes Aesop with Flaubert & Martel's own sheer narrative genius. For backlist see page 2.
