If this title reminds you a little of Robert Pirsig's classic Zen & the Art of Motorcycle Maintenance you would probably be right. It's no coincidence that a motorcycle graces the cover & no doubt pays homage to this work. While Pirsig's philosophical explorations on the joys of freedom & mechanical expertise was a very personal odyssey, Crawford's work expands upon some of Pirsig's ideas & applies them to a society that glorifies virtual abstractions in the workplace at the expense of the meaningful connectedness of manual labour. This work is an elegant re-thinking of what it means to lead a productive & meaningful working life.

The Bridge

David Remnick's new Obama biography The Bridge is not just another Obama book. Detailing the life of Obama before he became president, Remnick takes the title of his book from Congressman John Lewis, the civil rights hero of the Selma march: "Barack Obama is what comes at the end of that bridge in Selma."

"Superb. Beautifully written and artfully constructed."

Great Grad Gifts

The perennial favourite, Oh, the Places You'll Go by Dr. Seuss is in stock for another graduation season.

This year it is joined by Everything I Need to Know I Learned from Peanuts that includes inspiring Peanut cartoons and wisdom from the beloved characters. Linus: Never Set Your Stomach for a Jelly-Bread Sandwich Until You Are Sure There's Some Jelly!

Culinary Persuasions

In the Green Kitchen: Techniques to Learn by Heart

Alice Waters has been a champion of the sustainable, local cooking movement for decades. In the Green Kitchen presents her essential cooking techniques plus more than 50 recipes—for delicious fresh, local, and seasonal meals. She demystifies the basics including steaming a vegetable, dressing a salad, simmering stock, filleting a fish, roasting a chicken, and making bread.
